KB LAW TRADE SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP

KB Law Office is passionate about community service and allowing students to pursue training in non-traditional educational facilities, such as trade schools. We've recognized a growing trend in the building/automotive trades industry and the need for skilled tradesmen and tradeswomen. These positions are gaining a lot of attention and it's our goal to be involved in a meaningful way.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- ✓ The student must possess a 2.0 GPA or higher.
- ✓ Has been accepted into an accredited technical institution or secondary technical vocational school with apprenticeship programs such as HVA, carpentry, electrical, automotive technology, alternative energy, plumbing, cosmetology, certification programs such as vet tech, etc. or related fields of study. (Note: All scholarship recipients are required to submit proof of enrollment prior to receipt of the scholarship.)
- ✓ Currently attending high school in Hillsdale County, in good standing, and will graduate in the 2025–2026 school year.
- ✓ Community service hours – each applicant will be evaluated individually as to what he/she has participated in.
- ✓ Must submit the application with 2 letters of recommendation from a teacher, employer or similar position.
- ✓ Must submit an essay about the career field you are choosing and how it shapes who you are now or who you might become in the future. (The essay must be a minimum of one FULL page, single spaced, but no longer than 2 pages, single spaced.)

Application Deadline

All applications must be submitted no later than March 30, 2026, to KB Law Office, PO Box 904, Hillsdale, MI 49242, faxed to 517.797.6023, or emailed to teresa@kburgerlaw.com.
